

Maritimea

Above and Beneath the Waves—
The Illustrated Guide to the Maritime World

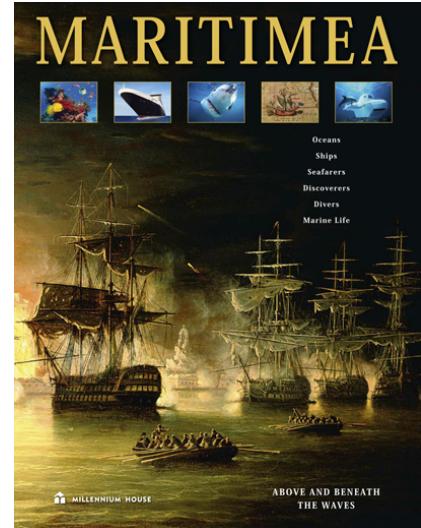

OCEANS • SHIPS • SEAFARERS • UNDERWATER LIFE • THE OCEANS TODAY

Foreword by Philippe Cousteau

This is a bold and exhilarating account of the oceans and ocean exploration. With authoritative text by geographers, oceanographers, historians, and marine experts, it features over 600 superb photographs and illustrations plus detailed mapping throughout. Special features covering topics from boat building through the ages, navigational advances, piracy on the high seas, to the hottest topical issues like whales and whaling and the territorial disputes over underwater resources, make Maritimea a completely comprehensive and accessible reference that captures the drama and excitement of the maritime world, above and beneath the waves.

- How the oceans and seas were formed
- Our planet's unique marine environments
- Understanding tides, waves, currents, winds
- The first seafarers; explorers and navigators; the Age of Discovery
- The spice trade; the tea trade; pearls and pearl diving; sealers and whalers
- Battles on the water
- Underwater life
- Saving our oceans

Includes glossary of terms and index

Specifications

10 x 12¾ inches (325 x 250 mm), portrait, 448pp, cased

ISBN: 978-1-921209-42-0

195,500 words

600 color images, illustrations and maps

Millennium House

52 Bolwarra Road, Elanora Heights
NSW 2101 Australia

612 9970 6850

www.millenniumhouse.com.au

info@millenniumhouse.com.au